THE BATTLE FOR OUR CHILDREN

*Protect, Deliver, and Establish Your Sons &
Daughters*

Introduction

Children are the greatest inheritance the Lord entrusts to us. They are arrows in the hands of a mighty warrior (Psalm 127:3–5), and as parents, guardians, and intercessors, it is our divine responsibility to shape their destinies through prayer, decrees, and declarations. The words we speak over our children are not casual, they are seeds that take root in their future, building their identity, directing their steps, and sealing their inheritance in Christ.

The Bible makes it clear that life and death are in the power of the tongue (Proverbs 18:21). Every decree you speak over your children has the potential to unlock blessing or hinder destiny. When you choose to decree the Word of God, you align Heaven's will with your child's life, dismantling the strategies of darkness and establishing divine order.

Job 22:28 declares, “You will also decree a thing, and it will be established for you; so light will shine on your ways.”

This means that when you decree God's Word over your children, His light breaks through into their future.

Throughout Scripture, we see the power of decrees shaping generations. When Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau (Genesis 27), his words charted the course of their lives. When Jacob gathered his twelve sons and declared their futures (Genesis 49), every word came to pass in their descendants. Their destinies were framed by the declarations spoken over them. This shows us that the future of our children is not left to chance; it is heavily influenced by the prophetic words we release over them in prayer.

Declarations are not simply affirmations of hope, they are prophetic instruments of war. To decree is to legislate in the spirit, to enforce God's will in the face of opposition, and to command the establishment of His promises. When you decree over your children, you are actively shaping their future: breaking generational curses, cancelling satanic assignments, and unlocking doors of blessing, peace, and prosperity.

This is why decreeing and declaring over your children is essential. Every time you rise in prayer to declare God's Word, you are building the framework of their tomorrow. You are constructing a wall of fire around them (Zechariah 2:5), setting their feet on the path of righteousness, and ensuring that no enemy can derail their destiny. You are speaking into their marriages, careers, ministries, health, and future children, securing them in advance by the power of your words.

In this PDF you will find prophetic decrees and declarations anchored in Scripture to speak over your children. These are not ordinary words; they are drawn from the eternal promises of God and sharpened for warfare. As you decree them in faith, expect chains to break, atmospheres to shift, and destinies to align with Heaven.

May this PDF become your warfare arsenal, a weapon in your hand as you fight for the lives of your children. Stand boldly, declare with authority, and watch the Lord contend with every power that contends with them (Isaiah 49:25).

Your children will be saved, blessed, and established in the Lord. Now, rise as the watchman over your household, lift your voice, and decree. For your words, rooted in His Word, will shape the future and secure the legacy of your children.
